

OVAC RUDY MUMLEY ALL-STAR FOOTBALL CLASSIC

Effective 2009 - 2010

1. The method of selecting the coaches for the All-Star game shall remain as it has in the past, with the highest ranking coach from each state coaching the game for the class whose turn it is. The rotation is as follows:

AAAA:	2010	2014	2018	2022	2026
AAA:	2011	2015	2019	2023	2027
AA:	2012	2016	2020	2024	2028
A:	2013	2017	2021	2025	2029

The head coach will select his staff. Although it will probably be his staff, he is not limited in his selection, and may ask any coach from any class in his state.

The coaching staff shall consist of no more than eight (8) coaches. These coaches are expected to be varsity coaches and/or varsity assistants and not junior high coaches. Should a school not have eight coaches and desires to add more, they may utilize coaches from other schools within their state (and the Conference) with the approval of the game director. The Conference provides certified trainers for both sides, so these are not needed. NO EXCEPTIONS to this rule are to be made, including Evening with the Stars, camp, and game day. (12.26.08)

Should a coach in the selected class decline coaching in the game, the next highest ranking coach will be asked. Should there be no coach available in that class, the committee will go to the class who coached the previous year and make the selection.

2. In selecting the players, the coach must follow the following guidelines:

Thirty-two (32) players plus a kicker will be selected from each state.

No more than three (3) players may be selected from any Ohio school.

No more than four (4) players may be selected from any West Virginia school.

The coach may select one (1) bonus player from any single school. Therefore, ONE Ohio school may have four (4) players, and ONE West Virginia school may have five (5) players.

3. The kicker may be from any school and does not count in the above totals. However, the kicker CAN ONLY KICK in the game and not play any other offensive or defensive position. Should he play an offensive or defensive position, the coach may only select thirty-two (32) players.

4. Not every school in the Conference has to have a player in the game. However, coaches are urged to try to incorporate players from as many schools as possible. A rule of thumb would be representing 90% of the schools in West Virginia (14) and 70% of the schools in Ohio (21).
